Cadorath Receives Rolls-Royce M250 First Network Award for Outstanding Partnership

Rolls-Royce held its annual M250 First Network Awards in Atlanta, Georgia on March 6th, where Cadorath was honored with the Outstanding Partnership award. The First Network comprises all AMROC, AMC, ARF, and AMOF facilities worldwide for the Rolls-Royce M250 and RR300 engine models.

The Outstanding Partnership award recognizes the facility that is an enabling partner and integral to the overall success of the Rolls-Royce FIRST Network. This facility is crucial to market success by consistently developing innovative and cost-effective capabilities to support the operator, the FIRST Network, and Rolls-Royce.

“The Rolls-Royce M250 Outstanding Partnership award cements our commitment to providing the highest quality piece part repairs to all M250 customers,” stated David R. Haines, Cadorath’s Chief Operating Officer. “This recognition, coupled with the support of all our customers is why we’re so excited about the future of the M250 and RR300 engine models in our facility.”

Cadorath is driven to continue delivering innovative solutions and exceptional customer support to their customers for the entire Rolls-Royce M250 and RR300 engine models.
